Influence of Music on Citizenship.

(A part of an address made by Prof. J. W. Ireland at the Kentucky Educational Association in June.)

Some one has said that school music should possess four distinct qualities. It must be inspirational, intellectual, devotional and patriotic. Since we make this assumption, which I believe a fact, how can it be denied that the influence of music on citizenship is for good? And, too, where will it bring greater results than in the schools of our land, where we may reach the mind in its formative stage?

What can be more potent elements in the make up of a desirable citizen than the four above named qualities? Every one of us should have inspiration or an inner breath or breathing in of wholesome emotions together with a knowledge or grasp of the thoughts and feelings of the higher life, and each citizen should be devoted to the principles of church and State. Music, which possesses these four qualities, becomes the most potent factor in instilling these ideal elements of good citizenship into one's character. What more sublime passions than these, outside the realms of the spiritual?

One of the mightiest forces of true citizenship is patriotism. Just as the noble Southerner is thrilled almost to electrification by the entrancing strains of Dixie, or the Kentuckian is enraptured by "The Old Kentucky Home," so is the child made to feel a tinge of patriotism when our patriotic lyrics are sung into his soul.

Martin Luther expressed himself as heartily in favor of every youth becoming accustomed to music, for, as he said, it made good and virtuous citizens. What more pleasant and profitable way can we find to make such citizens than by giving instructions to the child in this finest of arts? Such we are striving to do in our own Graded and High School, and we hope to see it established in every school in our goodly land.

Music is the hand-maid of religion and morality, and hence we can safely say that it has a most salutary influence upon the citizen. There is music in everything; for which reason let us be trained to recognize and appreciate it. Do you not remember to have read in sacred writ of that instance when the Lord asked Job from a whirlwind: Where were you when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

Since music is in everything, and is a condition not a theory, I affirm that the individual who is void of the faculty of recognizing it, lacks just that much of being the best citizen, not that one must be able to execute it, but as we have said, recognize and appreciate it.

The Bard of Avon has this to say about a man who does not have this all but heavenly attribute: The man that hath no music in himself Nor is not moved with a concord of sweet sounds, Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils;

The motions of his spirit are as dull as night

And his affections dark as Erebus; Let no such man be trusted.

Thus, we may see what kind of citizen a man would make who has no music in his soul, if we may rely upon the great writer of Literature.

What would our religious services be without music? I maintain that a life without music would be just as empty or sterile as a church service without it. More and more do we see that music is a universal quality. It is the best expression of all the passions.

"Music the fiercest grief can charm And fates' severest rage disarm, Music can soften pain to ease And make despair and madness please; Our joys below, it can improve And antedate the bliss above."

Anything that can antedate the bliss above, will most assuredly make a better citizen here below. It lifts one out of the pale of the common place and places him upon a higher and transfigured plane.

Paul and Silas sang praises unto God while incarcerated in prison at Philippi and suddenly the doors of the jail sprang open. So it may be with us when pent up in the prison-house of gloom and melancholy. If we but sing a soulful song or let music into the soul, we are lifted to the Mount of Transfiguration, the bars of gloom are burst and the higher life of joy springs in, carrying with it more beatific beams than those rays from jailer's light. A kindly light is led through the encircling gloom. We may say with Eleanor Allen that,

When the day is dark and dreary, or when everything goes wrong, Chase away the gloom and darkness, Sing, O sing a cheerful song.

Sing at home around the fireside, here let sweetest music ring

Heart and mind and soul uplifting, with the music as we sing.

May we not digress for one moment here, and urge the people to take more interest in music generally, since we see its vast benefits. The school is the place to get this instruction and it should lie heavily upon the heart of patron and citizen, priest and parishoner, to do everything possible to further the cause of music in our schools. Aside from the fact that it gives culture, it makes the whole world brighter. Since it does this, it most certainly will brighten the school room, and we all know that many of them are sadly in need of something brighter.

A funeral service without a soulful hymn would become an even more sad occasion, for what note of condolence or sympathy can satisfy a sorrowing heart more than the subdued but sweet tones of that all but immortal song, "Asleep in Jesus." It is on such occasions that

"Music with her silver sound, With speedy help doth lend redress."

Again the universality of music, in appealing to every deep human passion, impresses itself upon us, and that power which so effectively moves the passions must needs work a most wholesome transformation in the life of a citizen.

Music then is not local or sectarian. It was a Methodist who wrote the almost immortal strains of "Jesus, Lover of my Soul." But who thinks of John Wesley when the sublime melody of that grand old hymn is rendered? A Calvinist wrote the strains almost divine, of "Rock of Ages," but he lacks appreciation who suffers his mind to be transformed from that figure clinging to the rock and lets it rest upon the name or person of Toplady, the composer. That rock is equally firm to all sects and all ages.

With the ancients, I believe that music is a Therapeutic, for it is a divine message in that it saves and heals and brings us closer to heaven.

God sent His fingers upon the earth With songs of sadness and of mirth, That they might touch the hearts of men And bring them back to heaven again.

Certainly a force so impellent as to bring men from earth to heaven can make a pre-eminently better and more substantial citizenship. It has been said, and truly so, that music is the echo of God's voice in the soul of man and most emphatically the citizen who has more of God's voice in him is a better citizen.

For such a reason as the last, should we not work more assiduously to the end that music will become a more prominent feature of our social and domestic life. Is it not an inspiration to a better life when we know that all good emanates from the omnipotent and that music is but His voice in our souls.

Since we see that music softens the hard heart, melts to pity, stirs the patriotic impulses, spurs the martial spirit and urges to victory, we know beyond the shadow of a doubt that it is one of the most powerful influences that can be brought to bear upon the making of a good citizen. Then why not urge every boy or girl possessing the least modicum of talent, to take lessons in this most useful subject.

Some say that music lies at the root of all human culture in the earliest ages. I hesitate to go to that extreme, but I do believe that much of the culture of this age as well as that of former ages, is attributable to music, and I shall strive in my humble manner to make it an important phase of the work of school life wherever my lot may be cast.

In the last place I am going to urge again that all take more interest in this art, for who ever heard of any service in heaven save the singing, praising and rejoicing of the angels. There is a record of no choir save a celestial choir. Do we not wish to join that and sing around the throne? Did any one ever hear of a choir in the regions under the earth, or the lower regions? If so, what would you call it but (may I say it) an infernal choir? My final exhortation shall be, let us strive to make better citizens by fitting ourselves for that immortal choir which sings in that building not made with hands eternal in the heavens. And may we be prepared the better to sing around the throne of God forever more.

Watched Fifteen years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c. at Penny's Drug Store.

It has been discovered that The Outlook, with which President Roosevelt has made a contract, is controlled by James Stillman, who is closely associated with the Standard Oil group and E. H. Harriman, and New York is laughing at the president's predicament.

The grand jury at Nashville returned a true bill against Robin Cooper, Col. D. B. Cooper and former Sheriff John D. Sharp, charging them with the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack. It is expected that the case will not be called up for trial until the January term of court.

John D. Sharp, former Sheriff of Davidson county, was arrested at Nashville charged with aiding and abetting in the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack. It is alleged that Sharp was seen with the two Coopers shortly before the killing and was also at the scene of the tragedy immediately after Carmack fell to the ground. Sharp was taken to jail.

Morris Haas, who shot Francis J. Heney Friday, committed suicide in the San Francisco jail by shooting himself through the head. The policemen attempted to arrest the Negro, who had severely beaten an Indian boy. Deckard barricaded himself in his home and defended it against a posse brought by the Sheriff. He finally set the house on fire and was consumed in the flames.

The INTERIOR JOURNAL announces the candidacy of Mr. W. D. Wallin as a candidate for assessor of Lincoln. John Woods committed suicide at his home near New Hope, Nelson county, by shooting himself in the head. This was his second attempt to end his life, he having taken carbolic acid about six weeks ago. He was night watchman at the Belle of Nelson distillery and is survived by a wife and two children.

Mrs. Agnes Leitner, wife of a glass-blower, cut the throats of her two children, aged 6 and 3 years, respectively, then her own, at Frankfort. The children's heads were almost severed from their bodies and Mrs. Leitner died a few minutes after she had committed the crime. It is thought the deed was done in a fit of despondency brought about by financial trouble.

But for the large hat which she was wearing, Mrs. Morris Bartlett, of Lawrenceburg, would have been killed, when she stepped off a precipice and fell about eight feet to the rocks beneath. Mrs. Bartlett's hat protected her head and she escaped without serious injury. She regained consciousness next morning, and it was found that her only injuries are a few bruises and the shock to her nervous system.

A fire fiend is thought to be at work.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had 38 years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

Every day brings corroborative evidence that the killing of ex-Senator Carmack was a premeditated assassination. Some of the Tennessee papers are blaming Gov. Patterson for not preventing it, and the News-Scimitar, of Memphis, demands his impeachment, which it will do all in its power to procure.—Frankfort Journal.

Mind Your Business!

A PERSISTANT contemporary suggests that now that President Roosevelt is unbosoming himself respecting matters that could not expediently be discussed before the election, will he not tell the country what he knows of who got the $40,000,000 paid by the United States Government for the old Panama Canal. This vast sum disappeared in a twinkling and all efforts to trace its whereabouts have proved unavailing. The President knows where it went. If he won't tell, Congress should make him. Somebody, probably many bodies, feathered their nests at the expense of the taxpayers of this country. Let the scandal be unearthed.

MEN who try to make the world better are getting the hot end of it just now, but truth crushed to earth will rise again. Senator Carmack was killed as the result of his fight against the whisky traffic. Prosecutor Heney was shot, probably fatally, because of his efforts to put grafters where they belong and Gov. Folk was relegated to the rear, politically, because of his war on theft in high as well as in low places, and so on. All of this, however, will not deter the right kind of men and officers in the discharge of their duties and we expect to see the work Carmack, Heney and Folk begun, continued long after they have been forgotten.

THE postal deficit is $16,910,279, the largest in the history of the department. The entire cost of the postal department was $208,351,867. At this rate the republican platform promise of penny postage will be a long time materializing. The postmaster general will recommend a local parcel post for rural routes as a means of reducing the deficit. The rate proposed is 5 cents a pound and two cents additional for each pound up to 11, the maximum weight of a package. There are now more than 39,000 rural routes and over 18,000,000 people are served by them.

AN Indianapolis special to the Courier-Journal says: "The Republicans try to make it appear that Marshall's victory is a liquor victory, but the Democrats say it is nothing of the kind. They say the liquor issue was not really in the campaign, but was dragged in by Republican orators to fool the so-called good people, and it did fool a good many of them."

AFTER an exciting discussion, a proposition to exclude from future membership in the United Daughters of the Confederacy the Northern women who are now admitted by virtue of marriage to descendants of Confederate veterans, was voted down in the annual convention of the Daughters at Atlanta.

PRESIDENT-ELECT TAFT Saturday delivered the principal address at the dedication of the prisonship martyrs' monument in Fort Greene Park, Brooklyn. Secretary of War Wright and Gov. Hughes also delivered addresses and there was a parade in which 10,000 people participated.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT and John D. Rockefeller have both selected Augusta, Ga., for winter quarters. It is likely that the Standard Oil Co. will not be wiped out of existence for a year or so at least.

THE two Coopers, father and son, and ex-Sheriff Sharp have been promptly indicted and now if juries will as promptly condemn them to the halter for the assassination of Senator Carmack the great crime will be in a measure atoned, says the Frankfort Journal and to which we add our amen.

MR. WOODSON MAY, an experienced newspaper man and clever gentleman, has assumed the business management of the Somerset Journal and is also its local editor. He is well fitted for the place he fills and we predict increased business for that popular publication.

WHAT a pity it is that these so-called crazy people who try to take the life of good men and then kill themselves do not turn their guns on themselves first.

POLITICAL.

The democrats of the 25th circuit court district will nominate by primary election Dec. 31st.

Jackson L. Smith, for 16 years judge of the Missouri Court of Appeals, died in Kansas City.

Sidney G. Clay was nominated for representative by the democrats in Bourbon over John T. Collins.

The faction headed by Judge W. P. Yancey won the democratic nomination for the various county offices in Owen county.

Judge L. D. Lewis was nominated for circuit judge, and Ira Fields, for Commonwealth's attorney in the 33rd district, by the republicans.

Three defeated candidates in the recent Democratic primary in Calloway county have filed petitions with the committee for a recount of the vote. They charge fraud in several precincts.

Hon. Lillard H. Carter, of Lawrenceburg, has announced for speaker of the next House. He was recently nominated by the democrats for representative.

The Republican primary for county officers in Laurel, has been set for August 14. Already over 40 candidates for the offices are out and many more are expected to announce immediately after the judicial primary on December 5.

Bishop E. E. Hoss, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in speaking before the conference at Covington, Tenn., said: "If Carmack was killed for what he said in those editorials I should be killed also, for I affirm everything he said."

At the session of the American Federation of Labor at Denver a letter from William J. Bryan to Samuel Gompers was read. Mr. Bryan expressed his cordial thanks for the support given him by the labor men of the country at the recent election.

Gov. Hughes' expenses in his campaign for re-election of governor of New York are given as follows: Traveling and incidental expenses $260.16; for hotel bills, including telephones and messenger charges, $96.71, telegrams, $12.73 Total $369.65.

Victor H. Metcalf resigned as Secretary of the Navy and his resignation was accepted to take place December 1. Truman H. Newbury, the Assistant Secretary, will be elevated when Mr. Metcalf leaves. Ill health was the cause of Mr. Metcalf's action.

Champ Clark, who will be the next democratic floor leader of the House, reached Washington and took part in the deliberations of the Ways and Means Committee. After the day's hearings were over Mr. Clark expressed the opinion that little genuine revision of the tariff could be expected from the republicans.

State Senator Jack Chinn, we are told, will shortly announce for the Legislature. He says that the reason he is wanting to go back to Frankfort is that he wants an investigation of the penitentiary by the legislature, and says that if the people of Kentucky, women and all, knew the horrors behind those gloomy walls, they would move on Frankfort in a body and clamor at the doors of the prison for reform.—Hardsburg Democrat.

The Democratic primary election in Madison county Saturday was the quietest in the history of the county, due, it is claimed, to the no whisky and no money plan. The winners were: County Judge, W. Rhodes Shackelford; County Attorney, O. P. Jackson; Sheriff, D. A. McCord; County Clerk, R. B. Terrill; Circuit Clerk, Roy C. White; Assessor, Shelby Taylor; School Superintendent, John Noland; Jailer, N. B. Jones; Coroner, C. D. Samuels.

Rev. D. W. Robertson, of Georgetown, will preach at the Methodist church Saturday at 10:30 A. M.; Sunday morning and night.

The ladies' missionary society of the Methodist church had an interesting and instructive meeting Sunday night, with a large attendance.

The fact that 2,764 missionaries have been eaten by the cannibals in Africa does not scare Mr. Roosevelt. He knows that he is too tough even for a cannibal to eat.

The Oklahoma conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, adopted a memorial in favor of amalgamation of the Northern and Southern Churches.

Rev. Dr. G. Brinley Morgan, one of the most noted Episcopal clergymen in Connecticut and rector of Christ's church, New Haven, was struck by an automobile and probably fatally hurt.

Rev. D. M. Walker will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning. This will be good to his many friends who are glad that he is at last strong enough to resume his pastorate.

Agriculture In Schools.

The teaching of Agriculture in the country schools will not only be of decided advantage to the rising generation but will be of benefit to farmers of the present day. The book teaching at the schools, to be effective, must be supplemented by practical demonstration at home, or, better still, by practical application on school farms. The country is surcharged with theoretical farmers and agricultural spellbinders, some of whom talk for wages and others talk just to hear the echo of their voices. They are doing more harm than good. Attach a small field to each country school and have the boys put in practice that which they learn from the books and an interest will be evoked which will result in better farmers for the future and an improvement on farming of the present.—Bamberge.

In view of this action, it is very important that all types be sent in at once, that every one's tobacco may participate in the opening sales. Large orders are on file which are expected to consume the balance of the 1906 crop and a large part of the 1907 crop. All purchasers must take one hoghead of the old crop with every four hogheads they buy of the 1907 crop.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible! But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

At Moreland on Thursday, Nov. 26th, and at Hustonville, Saturday Nov. 28th. Meet me there and get your receipts and save the penalty. T. J. Hill, S. L. Co.

MR. SAMUEL M. OWENS, who served this county faithfully and well as sheriff and jailer, announces this issue for assessor, subject to the action of the democratic party. Mr. Owens is a good judge of property, a swift and correct penman and is well fitted for the office of assessor. He is a tried and true democrat and an exceedingly clever gentleman.

UNDER the new party rule adopted by the Lexington convention precinct committeeman will be elected in all the precincts in Kentucky on Saturday, next, Nov. 21. This will give every voter a chance to express himself. The INTERIOR JOURNAL has no other favor to ask than that tried and true democrats alone be put on guard. Let bolters and traitors take a back seat and not try to run the party they have attempted to ruin.

THE democrats of each precinct in Lincoln county will meet at their respective voting places, on Saturday Nov. 21st, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., standard time, and elect a committeeman to serve until his successor is elected. On the following Monday the 12 committeemen thus elected will meet at the court house in Stanford, Ky., and organize and elect a chairman and secretary to serve as provided by law. J. F. Holdam, chairman democratic county committee.

In the circuit court Judge Bell sustained a demurrer to the petition of the parties who brought suit to recover the greater part of Crab Orchard, and dismissed their suit. The case will go to the court of appeals.

The following jury has been secured in the case of the Commonwealth vs John Baugh charged with assaulting David Allen: B. T. Lunsford, J. T. Bingham, Wm. Curtis, James Miller, Sid Jennings, J. N. Vanhook, Wm. Huffman, J. H. Rigsby, G. A. Brown, A. M. Luce, T. C. Ball, John Z. Spoonamore.

LET us admonish the democrats of this county to pick the best men for county committeemen next Saturday. Put only tried and true men on guard—men who will give the party prestige and who will work for party success. The fellows who only vote the democratic ticket when everything goes to suit them should not be considered. If they are of the right kind of stuff they will be content to remain private and not attempt to lead democrats who are without spot or blemish. Beware of the fellow who is too anxious to become a member of the committee. He likely has some ulterior motive. The office should seek the man and when and where such is the case a good committeeman is the inevitable result.

BIG CATTLE—Charles Lutes has bought for Simon Weil, of Lexington, from the following parties: Dr. Hugh Reid, 24 cattle, 1,315 pounds, at 4 85; of J. H. Baughman, 20 cattle, 1,460 pounds, at 5 1/2; of Cyrus M. Jones, 27 cattle, 1,500 pounds, at 5 1/2. These cattle will be shipped to Baltimore for the holiday market.

THE Ladies' Aid Society and Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church want all the old newspapers, paper boxes, paper bags, letters, etc., you can spare. They want to get a car load and sell it and have rented the little store-room of Mr. Cicero Reynolds on Depot Street, opposite Myers' livery stable, to store it in.

BOWLING ALLEY.—Mr. J. L. Sargent, who has conducted a bowling alley at Lancaster for some time with much success, opened one here in the Odd Fellow's building last week. Mr. Sargent is an experienced bowling alley man and proposes to run the alley here on the high plane he has run others in several towns. He and his family have moved into the Aldridge property on Portman Ave.

DR. EDW. ALCORN, of Hustonville, is in Lexington, having been called in consultation in the illness of Dr. A. M. Helm, who is at the St. Joseph Hospital. Dr. Helm was brought back from Paint Lick last week suffering from typhoid fever, and his condition is grave. Dr. Alcorn has been physician in the family for many years. Mr. James Helm, of Hustonville, has come to be with his son until the crisis is passed.—Lexington Herald.

Now that the court-house proposition has been voted we believe even those who opposed a new court-house are not sorry that a decent building will take the place of the old shack. At least $400 a year will be saved in rent and besides the valuable papers will no longer be permitted to mould and ruin. The present building is not only dangerous but inadequate. It is now necessary for the sheriff, school superintendent, master commissioner and county attorney to rent offices in which to do business.

MR. P. C. MILLET, of Lexington, entertained Nov. 10th at the Havlin Hotel with a dinner in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Walter H. Worsham, of Corbin, who are guests at Hotel Havlin, Cincinnati. The table was tastefully decorated with ferns and roses and the dinner was one of many delicious courses. Mr. Millet's guests were: Capt. and Mrs. Worsham, of Corbin, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Stallard, of Appalechia, Va., Judge Fulton, of Wise, Va., Mrs. Stevenson and mother of Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. Grashar, of Paris, Ky., Mr. Jack O'Dowd, manager of Hotel Havlin.—Contributed.

THE news of the death of Mrs. J. R. Harris at Stanford, on Tuesday afternoon, was received with feelings of regret and sorrow by all those who had the good fortune to meet her. She was about 30 years old and was Miss Mary Cash, of Lincoln county. She was married about 10 years ago to Mr. J. Randolph Harris, of this city, son of Judge and Mrs. E. W. Harris, who has lived in Stanford since the marriage. Funeral services were held at the residence in Stanford on Thursday morning and the body was buried in Buffalo cemetery in the presence of many relatives and friends. She leaves a daughter, aged eight years, and the people tender sincere condolence to her and her father.—Lancaster Record.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Murphy, of McKinney, on the evening of Nov. 13, in honor of their son, Mr. J. Lee Murphy, and bride, nee Miss Mayme Underwood, and Mr. Harvey McBeath and bride, nee Miss Emma Jones, proved the acme of success as a social function. Those knowing Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will understand how sorry they were that the number of immediate relatives of all sides forced them to limit invitations to these. Fifty was as large a number as they could entertain comfortably. Festooning candle shades and heart shaped name cards were of red, beautifully suggestive of love and hope and promise for the future. When it is known that Miss Etta B. Root, Mrs. Anderson Nunneley and Mrs. W. H. Murphy assisted Mrs. Murphy, one ceases to wonder at the number of delicious courses served. The wedding presents were both numerous and handsome.

To the Democracy of Lincoln County.

I am a candidate for the office of assessor, subject to any mode that may be adopted for selecting the democratic nominees. I feel that the faithful work that I have done for my party under any and all circumstances since my young manhood entitles me to your consideration, but I do not ask it solely on this account. I am perfectly willing that what ever worth and ability I may have possessed as a public officer shall be determined by my past conduct in the offices of jailer and sheriff. I invite the closest scrutiny of my official record.

I have been engaged in farming and stock raising all of my life and believe I am sufficiently well acquainted with the values of all kinds of property to do equal and exact justice to the government and the property holder.

S. M. OWENS.
